FlexITy Achieves Cisco Cloud Builder Designation

Recognized for Expertise in Building Enterprise Cloud Solutions

RICHMOND HILL, ON (October 26, 2011) – FlexITy, an award winning enterprise provider of Cloud Solutions, Unified Communications, Data Centre Technologies and Managed Services, has been recognized for its' expertise in building end-to-end Cisco Cloud Solutions.

To support the expanding role of cloud-based solutions that leverage the intelligence of the network, FlexITy today announced it has achieved the Cisco Cloud Builder designation within the Cisco Cloud Partner Program.

This designation recognizes FlexITy's competencies to sell and implement Cisco network-centric, end-to-end cloud solutions for end-customers and/or cloud providers. As a Cisco designated Cloud Builder, FlexITy has competencies across all Cisco infrastructure components (security, networking, compute, storage and virtualization), cloud management applications, and through its recently launched cloud professional services practice, FlexCLOUD.

George Thorogood, director of professional services and programs for FlexITy, commented on the achievement, "We are extremely pleased to be one of the first partners to achieve this special designation in Cisco's newly formed Cloud Partner Program. FlexITy is in alignment with Cisco in our belief that the cloud will continue to be a top strategy for organizations as they seek to improve their business process and gain competitive advantage through better leveraging IT."

The Cisco Cloud Partner Program empowers its channel partners to build a comprehensive professional services practice and solution offering. The program offers training to help partners as they enhance their competencies in selling and implementing Cloud offerings that include Cisco cloud architectures and third-party technology.

"FlexITy has enjoyed a strong track record with Cisco, and as a result, its technologies are a critical component of our FlexCLOUD practice, allowing us to leverage the breadth and depth of Cisco's portfolio within our offering," said Ron Stewart, FlexITy's executive vice president of sales and marketing. "For our clients who are transforming their IT infrastructures to the Cloud, FlexITy and our partners combine powerful resources and expertise to produce elegant and efficient cloud computing solutions."
